WOULD SET UP NOVA SCOTIA AS INDEPENDENT

HALIFAX, April 20—Secession from the confederated Provinces of the Dominion of Canada, and setting up of Nova Scotia as an independent, self-governing British Dominion, was advocated in the House of Assembly to-day by H. W. Corring, Conservative member for Yarmouth. In a resolution calling for a referendum vote of the electors to ascertain whether or not the people of the Province were in favor of such a move, Mr. Corring said that the spirit of the Confederation Pact had been violated in respect to the Inter-Colonial Railway, now a part of the Canadian National system, and the Nova Scotian part of the Dominion was not receiving fair treatment in the matter of freight rates, railway, shipping, and other activities, upon which the prosperity of the Province depended. By her remoteness from populous centres he declared Nova Scotia could not compete with Quebec and Ontario in marketing farm products in those Provinces which did not offer a reciprocal market for Nova Scotia products. Nova Scotia was forced to support a policy of protective duties that were mainly beneficial to upper Canada, while increasing the cost of living at home with no balancing benefits. He referred to the neglect of Atlantic ports owing to the indifference of Quebec, Ontario and the Western Provinces, impairing of home markets and those abroad, due to Confederation, the burden of taxation that was becoming intolerable, enforced share in loss in operation of the huge railway system which was building up commerce for American ports at the expense of Canadian Atlantic ports, and the Inter-Colonial division of the system. He declared that Nova Scotia as an independent, self-governing British Dominion would be able to protect its farmers, fishermen and industrial workers through trade treaties and tariff measures, preserve home markets and furnish employment for its people, profitable investment for its capital, and build up enterprise and population.

WASHINGTON, April 19—Injunction proceedings, completely to shut off trading in sugar futures, have been instituted in New York to-day.

RIOTERS CLASH

MUELHEIM, April 20—The business section of Muelheim is in the hands of a mob of unemployed tonight, about three thousand have thrown barricades across the principal streets. There have been numerous clashes with the police and at least three men killed, and forty to fifty wounded, according to figures of the German Red Cross. The total dead since the demonstrations began yesterday number five. The Town Hall with three hundred police within, is besieged by the unemployed, who are armed with rifles obtained by looting. All the stores are closed, the owners have barricaded the doors and windows, police effectives are much reduced and there are no French soldiers in Muelheim. The unemployed are using paving blocks from the streets and bricks from the buildings to erect barricades. A delegation was received by the Burgomaster, who declared he was unable to grant increased doles, unless instructed by the Reich. The delegation decided the unemployed would await Berlin's decision behind barricades. All traffic is at a standstill and all activities controlled by the rioters, who, led by members of the Communist party, are confiscating foodstuffs. It is expected the police will have to surrender unless they receive assistance from the outside.

OBITUARY

To The Editor,
Dear Mr. Editor,—Indly permit me space in your widely circulated paper for the following remarks.
About the 12th we were privileged to listen to the best speech ever delivered in this locality. The speaker was Mr. F. B. Boone, travelling delegate for the Fishermen's Protective Union. We were unable to express our feelings while Mr. Boone spoke on the chief factors pertaining to our Dominion and consequently he was applauded again and again.
Suffice it to say therefore that Mr. Boone is the type of speaker and man who are supporting the Squires Government, then I say call again, for sir, as sure as the sun rises, no Government that can boast of such men can ever fall by the people's votes.
Wishing you and all supporters of the Liberal party a successful fight in the political campaign. I remain,
Yours very cordially,
STEWART PENKEN.

CHAPTER XXVII

The trail was growing hot; the Colonel mopped his brow and concentrated further. If the N.C.O. was really going to start operations, in order to move its material from the Cardigan dock to the scene of operations it would have to cut his (the Colonel's) tracks somewhere on Water Street. Damnation! That was it. They were trying to slip one over on him. They were planning to get a jump-crossing in before he should awake to the situation; they were planning, too, to have the city council slip through the franchise when nobody was looking, and once the crossing should be in, they could laugh at Colonel Pennington!

"The scoundrels!" he murmured. "I'm on to them! Cardigan is playing the game with them. That's why he bought those rails from the old Laurel Creek spur! Oh, the sly young fox—quoting that portion of our hauling contract which stipulates that all spurs and extensions of my road, once it enters Cardigan's lands, must be made at Cardigan's expense! And all to fool me into thinking he wanted those rails for an extension of his logging-system. Oh, what a blithering idiot I have been! However, it's not too late yet. Poundstone is coming over to dinner Thursday night, and I'll wring the swine dry before he leaves the house. And as for those rails Cardigan managed to hornswoggle me out of—"

He seized the telephone and fairly shouted to his exchange operator to get his woods-foreman Jules Rondeau on the line.

"That you, Rondeau?" he shouted when the big French Canadian responded. "Pennington talking. What has young Cardigan done about those rails I sold him from the abandoned spur up Laurel Creek?"

"He have two flat-cars upon ze spur now. Does woods-gang of hee she tear up dose rails from ze head of ze spur and load in ze flat-cars."

"The cars haven't left the Laurel Creek spur, then?"

"No, she don't leave yet."

"See to it, Rondeau, that they do not leave until I give the word. Understand? Cardigan's woods-boss will call you up and ask you to send a switch-engine up to sneak them out late this afternoon, oct to-morrow—afternoon. Tell him the switch-engine is in the shop for repairs or is busy at other work—anything that will stall him off and delay delivery."

"Suppose Bryce Cardigan, he comes around and say 'Why?'" Rondeau queried cautiously.

"Kill him!" the Colonel retorted coolly. "It strikes me you and the Elack Minorca are rather slow playing."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Under an Act representing the St. John's General Hospital (6 George V., Chapter XIX), and with the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the Board of Governors, have fixed and prescribed the following scale of fees to be levied from and paid by all persons who occupy beds or undergo treatment at the Hospital:

Scale of Fees.

Every person receiving treatment in the St. John's General Hospital shall pay fees according to the following scales:—

PERSONS ADMITTED TO THE PUBLIC WARDS, $1.00 PER DAY.
PERSONS OCCUPYING PRIVATE ROOMS, $10.00 PER WEEK IN ADDITION TO THE DAILY FEE OF $1.00.

TO COVER THE COST OF DRESSINGS, ANAESTHETICS, AND FOR THE USE OF THE OPERATING ROOM. PATIENTS UNDERGOING OPERATIONS SHALL PAY A FEE OF $10.00 IN ADDITION TO THE FEES SPECIFIED ABOVE.

Every applicant for admission to the Hospital must bring or forward to the Superintendent of the Hospital, certificate signed by a duly registered physician that such applicant is a proper subject for Hospital treatment.

Under the provisions of the General Hospital Act, 1915, all patients who are unable to pay fees shall be required to bring with them a certificate of their inability to pay, which shall be signed by the Resident Relieving Officer, or where there is no such Officer by a Justice of the Peace, a Clergyman or other responsible persons.

The fees of such patients thereupon payable by the Commissioner of Public Charity, by virtue of the said Act. By order of the Board of Governors.

CHAPTER XXVIII

The dictograph which Shirley had asked Bryce to obtain for her in San Francisco arrived on the regular passenger-steamer on Thursday morning, and Bryce called her up to ask when she desired it sent over.

"Good morning, Mr. Cardigan," she greeted him cheerily. "How do you feel this morning? Any the worse for having permitted yourself to be a human being last night?"

"Why, I feel pretty fine, Shirley. I think it did me a lot of good to crawl out of my shell last night."

"You feel encouraged to go on living, eh?"

"Yes."

"And fighting?"

"By all means."

"Then something has occurred of late to give you new courage?"

"Oh, many things. Didn't I give an exhibition of my courage in accepting Ogilvy's invitation to dinner, knowing you were going to be there?"

She did not like that. "You carry your frankness to extremes, my friend," she retorted. "I'm sure I've always been much nicer to you than you deserve."

"Nevertheless there wasn't any valid reason why I should tantalize myself last night."

"Then why did you come?" He had a suspicion that she was laughing silently at him.

"Partly to please Ogilvy, who has fallen head over heels in love with Moira; partly to please Moira, who wanted me to meet you, but mostly to please myself, because, while I dreaded it, nevertheless I wanted to see you again. I comforted myself with the thought that for the sake of appearances we dared not quarrel in the presence of Moira and my friend Ogilvy and I dare say you felt the same way. At any rate, I have seldom had more enjoyment when partaking of a meal with an enemy."

"Please do not say that," she answered. "I am your opponent, but not your enemy."

"That's nice of you. By the way, Shirley, you may inform your uncle at breakfast Friday morning about my connection with the N.C.O. In fact, I think it would be far better for you if you made it a point to do so."

"Why?"

"Because both Ogilvy and myself have a very strong suspicion that your uncle has a detective or two on our trails. There was a strange man rather prevalent around him all day yesterday and I noticed a fellow following my car last night. He was on a bicycle and followed me home. I communicated my suspicions to Ogilvy, and this morning he spent two hours trying to shake the same man off his trail—and couldn't. So I judge your uncle will learn to-day that you dined with Ogilvy, Moira, and me last night."

"Oh, dear! That's terrible." He could sense her distress.

"Ashamed of having been seen in my company, eh?"

"Please don't. Are you quite serious in this matter?"

"Quite."

"Uncle Seth will think it so—so strange."

"He'll probably tell you about it. Better beat him to the issue by fussing up, Shirley. Doubtless his suspicions are already aroused, and if you inform him that you know I am the real builder of the N.C.O., he'll think you're a smart woman and that you've been doing a little private gum shoe work of your own on behalf of the Laguna Grande Lumber Company."

"Which is exactly what I have been doing," she reminded him.

"I know. But then, I'm not afraid of you, Shirley—that is, any more. And after Friday morning I'll not be afraid of your uncle. Do tell him at breakfast. Then watch to see if it affects his appetite."

"Oh, dear! I feel as if I were a conspirator."

"I believe you are one. Your dictograph has arrived. Shall I send Geo. Sea Otter over with it? And have you somebody to install it?"

"Oh, bother? Does it have to be in stalls?"

"It does. You place the contraption—hide it, rather—in the room where the conspirators conspire; then you run wires from it into another room where the detectives listen in on the receivers."

"Could George Sea Otter install it?"

DOMINION DEBTS NOT SET OFF BY BRITAIN

LONDON, March 21.—Stanley Baldwin, Chancellor of the Exchequer, was asked in the House of Commons yesterday in view of the difficulty experienced in a manufacturing country like Britain paying a large debt to a high tariff country by means of direct trading, the Government would consider an arrangement for the debt of £150,000,000 owed to Great Britain by the Dominions being exchanged for a portion of the debt Great Britain owed to the United States.

The Chancellor did not consider such an arrangement practicable. Payments by the Dominions naturally assisted Great Britain in meeting the burden of the American obligations.

Production So Far Is In Excess of Last Year.

Meyer and Company, of Christiania,

Norway, cabled yesterday the following report of the Lofoden codliver oil production so far for the present season: "The fishery at Lofoden is well up to expectations; they have so far 5,791 hectolitres of oil, as compared with 3,964 last year. All Norway gives 12,981 hectolitres, as against 10,702 last year. The price of livers has gone up and present prices are expected to keep up for the season. The actual price paid for best non-freezing 1923 Lofoden oil is now 90 shillings c.i.f. London, and $21.00 c.i.f. New York."

The above report is from a fishery that is about half through.

BONIA, BINDON AND BROWNE AT SALMONIER

Bennett Party Admit Defeat in Placentia and St. Mary's

BENNETT PARTY ADMIT DEFEAT

Dear Sir.—Please allow me space in your valuable columns to report the doings of the candidates of both the government and the opposition here the past two days.

Tuesday night at about ten o'clock the Government candidates, Messrs. Bonia, Bindon, Browne, arrived here from Colinet.

A crowd soon gathered, hoping to have a meeting.

These were supplemented by a dozen others, who, while working at Harriet River, three miles away, had seen the candidates pass, and hastened along.

A meeting was impossible at so late an hour, but, as the woods-men were returning to their camp and would not be back next day, a discourse was arranged in the dining room of Mr. Richard Fowles, after the candidates had partaken of supper.

Messrs. Bindon and Brown made clear the details of the great Humber Valley project, which is the subject of these men's chief interest centre in at the present time. The Humber deal eclipses everything in sight, hitherto prominent in the political landscape.

With everybody fishing as in the past, the normal catch should be somewhat above the purchasing capacity of the European markets, while conditions remain in these countries as they are at present. Therefore the fisheries cannot pay unless we find a way to cut down production for a few years, and this, the Humber only can do, by providing employment for thousands of our men, who will prefer land labour at three dollars per day, while the rest pursue their calling at the fishery.

Squires is now prepared to give the country the whole loaf, once again. No thinking man, free and undecieved will care to support Bennett, and postpone that realization another year and a half or more, or even one day longer than necessary.

The Humber expedition will increase the general annual revenue of the country more than two million dollars. This will make possible the promotion of public works, such as wharves, roads, bridges, cost-lights, and alarms etc., etc., as well as the reduction of per capita taxation meanwhile. Considering the condition of the world to-day, these things could only be accomplished by virtue of a windfall such as the Humber Deal represents.

Mr. Bonia was thankful he didn't have to do any talking on this occasion.

At ten o'clock Wednesday morning, a public meeting was held in the hall, which was well attended, despite the time of the day, when many could not resist the desire to slide wood, while the snow and ice was firm after the night's frost.

Messrs. Bonia, Bindon and Brown spoke in the order named. Three fine speakers we have never had the pleasure of hearing.

Mr. Bonia carries all before him by his wit, easy assurance, and captivating good nature. Bonia in Placentia and St. Mary's is a man who knows his audience, and gets right inside the armour, making friends of all and leaving no place for hostility. Honest as the air he breathes, his words carry conviction that mere language is powerless to convey. Then the vital issues at stake are visualized, bias is swept away and the excellent policies of the Squires Government are seen in true colours.

The Humber deal was again dealt with at length as well as the reasons why it necessarily becomes an issue in the coming election and other vital matters of primary concern to the district and country; all of which were received with a unanimous spirit of approval.

At the meeting came to a close, people were still coming into the hall. Mr. Bonia again took the floor, and in a forcible speech, reviewed the situation from a patriotic standpoint, outlining genuine applause. Three cheers were called for the Squires candidates, Bonia, Bindon and Brown, which were given with right good will, after which the meeting closed, and the party, after chatting with the people for a while left for St. Joseph's.

Local discussion during the day centered on the Bennett party's opposition to the Humber deal persisted in right up to the last minute. It was known if Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott would continue to denounce it, or make a show of adopting it for themselves; until they arrived and had their meeting last night. In their speeches, even, they hesitated to voice a bluff, not knowing how it would be taken. There is a section of every community whose interests are served by keeping the people poor, and by strangling their independence.

Perhaps this section is assured that there will be no Humber Deal if it is left to Bennett and his party.

Walsh, Sullivan and Sinnott were defeated men when they walked into the hall Wednesday night. When they came out Harriet road in sleighs, two skippers aboard a schooner waved them a welcome, which was very encouraging. They had a very good attendance at the hall that night while also should be very encouraging; notwithstanding the fact that many came to the dance for which the hall had been engaged before the Opposition candidates arrived.

Why, then, did Walsh and Sullivan appear and act as if they intended to give the people a bit of their minds when really they should, if clear of their consciences, repose confidence in their judgments. Why did Sinnott cut his remarks so short and speak with such hesitation; as if he expected a contradiction at every pause. The people only smiled when he said he had done his best the past three and a half years. The people had agreed beforehand that there should be no interruption. That's why Sullivan and Walsh were allowed to carry falsehood after falsehood and abuse of the Squires party unending into the teeth of intelligent people for more than two hours.

Three or four whoppers caught their special attention.

We were told that the per capita debt had increased from thirty-five dollars per head to sixty-five dollars in the past three and a half years. Hows that for a beginner?

We were told that Coaker never visited the Marine and Fisheries Department once in the past two years. Coaker's worst enemies, who know his record in that office won't thank Walsh for spoiling the show with such wild statements.

Monroe too, he says, is going to beat Coaker in Bonavista.

Sullivan admitted defeat last night in plain terms.

He claimed four or five men from the Northern districts, nine in Conception Bay, three here, and so on, till he counted them up and, nearly fell dead when he found there were only nineteen. He gathered himself quickly and said they'd have thirty; but it was too late. Walsh saw the seriousness of the admission and took up the question in disargument with his colleague, as he said, stating that they could get more of Coaker's seat than Mr. Sullivan said; as this was to be the first real test of Coaker's strength.

Now, I am confining myself to actual facts, so that those who attended the meetings will recall the incidents as they occurred, admit the accuracy of my statements, and the ask themselves, along with other questions, if Bennett is going to have a nine seats in Conception Bay and a three here.

Abuse was piled on the Squires government for having fallen down on their promises re railway improvement. The railway, they now say is a lot of rusty rails. Now, do the people recall the wreck after wreck that occurred day after day and week after week about three years ago, until passengers boarded trains wondering how far they could hope to get with safety.

Do the people recall the tragedies that occurred onto or three occasions because of the conditions of the railway and the incompetence of successive governments? No such thing are happening now. What of the numerous wash-outs of those days. We don't hear of them now Messrs. Walsh and Sullivan think the people are fools. Don't forget the story Mr. Walsh and the destitute widow who after all, was destitute, mainly by Mr. Walsh's neglect.

Do these men hope to win their election by assailing the credulity of people with such violence as to overthrow calculation.

Truly, I would be glad to let them have it out on their merits with the opponents, were the legitimate issues kept before the people, but such is far from the case, that no man may, unconcerned without committing absolute crime.

The people who will elect the Squires candidates for this district are:

1st. Those who want employment three dollars per day at the Humber.

2nd. Those at home, whose wages will be raised automatically by reason of a shortage of men brought about by the Humber, and last but not means least, those staunch Liberals who know Liberal politicians have always been identified with the writing is indeed on the wall. A merchant influence could always add something to the prestige of popular ones, but never, never could reverse it. Take Hon. A. F. Goodridge, who, we may say, owned the three days. He was revered as a merchant by few men are to-day. He came to the district, got all the respect due him, but the votes he did not get. Newfoundlanders are not fools. Just wait and see.

No government could be expected to satisfy the people during the period just past, but things were kept going, and the people enabled to live, and now just at the time Squires is prepared to do the grand thing by the people; can we allow it to be snatched from their grasp, because Bennett, Ashlin, Crosbie, Walsh, Sullivan and we rest think it's their innings. No.

Suppose you and I reader, had fished all Summer with a good skipper, landed a good voyage and prepared it well for market; would you think it proper that we turn the skipper ashore before we settle up? That's what they're asking you to do. Sir Richard Squires is our Captain. He is the big voyage (The Humber deal).

Are we then going to turn Sir Richard ashore and ship John R. Bennett, who never landed and never could land, such a deal, to make a fool of it? No! It would be idle to think so.

Yours very truly,

VOTER,
Salmonier, April 12th 1923.

And Here's the Truth About Bonavista

(To the Editor.)

Dear Sir,—No doubt you have seen accounts in the other papers regarding the doings of the Opposition here, and the big things they are accomplishing.

On the face of it one might think that they were really meeting with certain measure of success, but a few explanatory words will explode that idea. First, they formed a committee of all the few anti-Coaker types in the town, consisting mainly of merchants and their book-keepers, clerks, store-keepers, etc., with a sprinkling of others.

They hold their meetings behind barred doors and admittance is gained by ticket which must be accompanied by a password.

Anyone not known to be a trustworthy friend and brother must take upon themselves a solemn covenant and pledge.

They have scraped the town with a fine-tooth comb to procure eligible members and succeeded—according to their own statement—in collecting 250 adherents.

What surprises one most is this being so entirely conservative. They care not what becomes of the mass of voters, for anyone, who perchance may have wandered into their fold, and discovered as not belonging to the flock are turned out to the dark, cold night, without a care for their welfare.

Their only care seems to be only for those "chosen few," this "remnant," that they may be saved.

The leaders harangue, bluff and bulldoze those few followers until they rant and rear 'til some less timid than the rest, proclaim their intention of rallying forth, and in their puny strength, slay the giant who leads the host of Unionism.

One might think that, having a total of 250 voters, they are in a position to make themselves felt, but, Sir, we have 1200 voters in Bonavista proper. They have all they can now possible scrape together, which is a little over 20 per cent of the total number of voters thereby leaving a majority for Mr. Coaker and his colleagues of 700, a nice little amount to go towards their anticipate majority of 2000. I believe Mr. Coaker to be very conservative in his estimate, for, taking Bonavista and to shore up, for the short distance of 9 miles he will obtain a majority of 900 or over.

It is a great pity and its pains one to see people so strenuously opposed to the rights and interests of the fishermen and the people at large.

They should realize that the fishermen are the mainstays of the country and they should fight for, and not against their rights and privileges.

I would advise the fishermen not to fight against your rights and interests; you have to depend upon yourselves.

To the Opposition Committee and others. Do not fight against the rights and interests of the fishermen; you have to depend upon them.

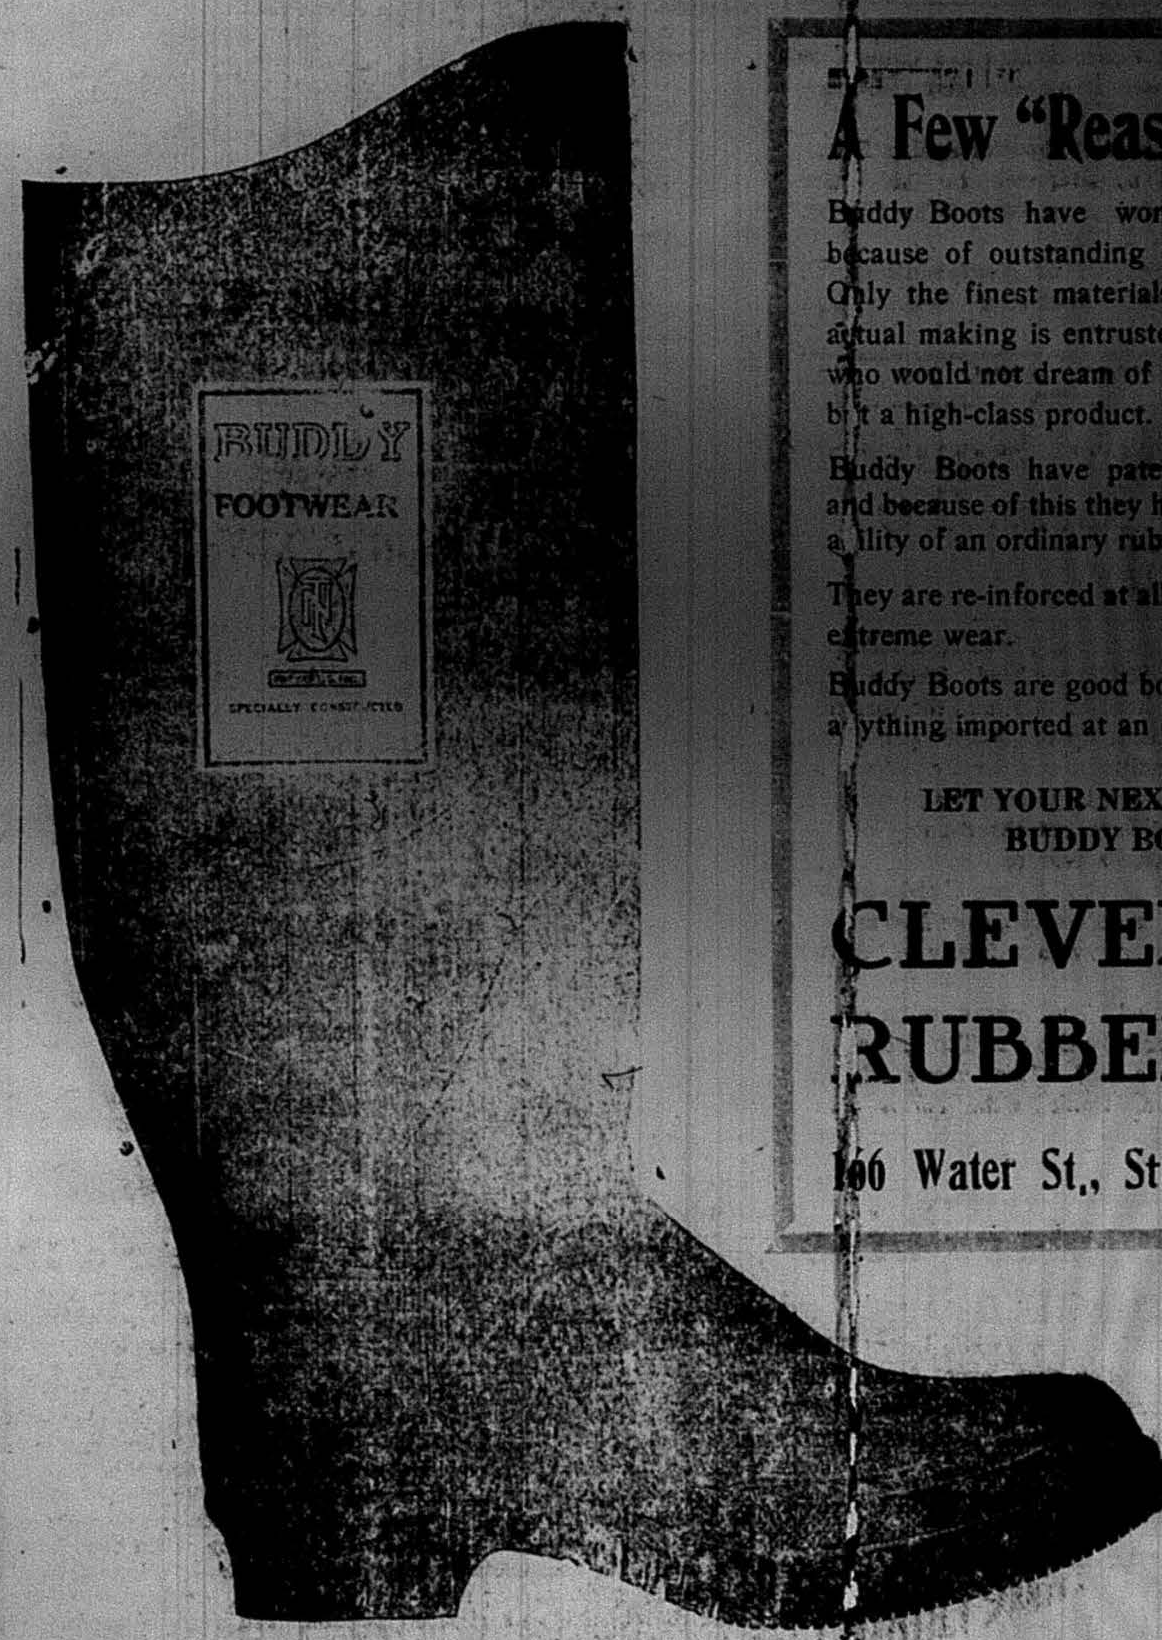

POLITICUS,

The Popular Make of Rubber Boots. BUDDY BOOTS.

From every direction comes the demand for Buddy Boots, the brand of Rubber Footwear that is so popular with Fishermen, Lumbermen, Sectionmen and Miners.

Men of all occupations calling for reliable Rubber Footwear, are unanimous in their praise of Buddy Boots.

A Few "Reasons Why"

Buddy Boots have won their leadership because of outstanding quality and values. Only the finest materials are used. The actual making is entrusted solely to experts who would not dream of producing anything but a high-class product.

Buddy Boots have patented muscled legs, and because of this they have double the durability of an ordinary rubber boot.

They are re-inforced at all points subjected to extreme wear.

Buddy Boots are good boots and superior to anything imported at an equal price.

The Battery Gives Wonderful Reception

TO BARTLETT, BULLEY AND BURKE

The Liberal Candidates, Bartlett, Bulley and Burke, had a meeting in the Methodist School Room last night which was one of the most successful and enthusiastic meetings ever held at the Battery.

The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock, Mr. Wm. Snelgrove acting as chairman, while several prominent residents of this important fishing section, occupied seats on the platform. The hall was packed long before the appointed time and crowds had to stand outside, not being able to gain admittance.

The Chairman opened the meeting with a splendid address and introducing the three candidates, Mr. Snelgrove called on Mr. H. Bartlett to address the gathering. Mr. Bartlett started off with a speech that was listened to with rapt attention. Mr. Bartlett outlined the policy of Sir R. A. Squires and the need of industrial development to make Newfoundland go ahead. The next speaker was Mr. Jos. Burke. Mr. Burke's address was one of the best political addresses ever heard at the Battery within the memory of the oldest inhabitants, outlining the different policies of past Governments and what the Humber will mean to Newfoundland as soon as Squires comes back (Cheers).

The next speaker was Mr. Arthur Bulley, who spoke of the Humber and showed clearly how Bennett could not reduce taxation. The only way said Mr. Bulley that we can hope for a reduction in taxation is by development of the interior of our country, and thereby create labour for the people. At the conclusion of Mr. Bulley's remarks, the crowd cheered the popular young speaker to the echo.

The Chairman then called upon Mr. Joseph Peckford to address the audience. Mr. Peckford gave a good logical address and from the beginning held the audience as he scored time and again.

The meeting was a job to Higgins and his clique and clearly shows that the people of the Battery did not want Bennett and Bitter Times and would stand to a man to support the three B's that mean Squires and Prosperity. The meeting closed with the National Anthem and cheers for Squires and the three B's.

Congratulations to Rev Dr. Darby, M.A.

At a recent convention the faculty of the Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal conferred upon the Rev. T. B. Darby, M.A., of this city the degree of Doctor of Divinity. Dr. Darby is a native of Burin, and entered the Ministry about 35 years ago. He graduated B.A. at Mount Allison University, New Brunswick in the eighties, and six years ago proceeded to the M.A. degree. After the conferring of 1915 Dr. Darby retired from circuit work, to succeed the Rev. Dr. Fenwick, as Chaplain and Guardian of the Methodist College Home.

Readers of the Advocate will be confident, unite with us all in extending to the Doctor cordial congratulations upon the distinguished honour that the famous Theological College has accorded him.

Higgins' much advertised demonstration was a washout.

John Humby Gets Five Years

John Humby, convicted of rape before the Supreme Court on Monday last was brought before the Chief Justice, Sir William Horwood, this morning for sentence. Asked by the clerk if he had anything to say why the sentence of the Court should not be passed upon him, the prisoner said he had nothing to say, whereof the Chief Justice sentenced the unfortunate man to five years in the Penitentiary with hard labour.

Taxation Under Squires Means $60 Less To Family

Cashin Tories, and especially Cashin himself, have been telling a lot about Taxation. Cashin puts it at $65.00 per head. This is false. Taxation under Cashin was $38.00 per head in 1919, and the year that Cashin was kicked out of office he ran it up to $42.00 per head. That year Cashin increased the expenditure enormously, and he found that the people were turning in such large amounts in revenue. This extraordinary expenditure would have put the country on the rocks if the slump in business had come a year earlier.

Squires has taken taxation off until it is $30 per head a day. The proof is that Squires has taken off in duties, etc., over Two million dollars and that means a present to every average family of $60.00 per year.

These are facts that cannot be denied. The figures are on record that Cashin's revenue for his last year of office was Ten and a half million dollars, which meant $42.00 per head. This year's figures will show taxation is only $30 per head. Don't let the Tories blind you with their juggling of figures. They would deceive you, but don't be bluffed.

Public Debt Is Far Less Than Canada's

Another bugaboo of the Tory Ananias is the Public Debt. This is a never failing topic for every Opposition that ever faced the country. As a matter of fact the per capita debt of Newfoundland is just half the per capita debt of Canada. Newfoundland has a debt of $200 per head, while Canada has a debt of $400 per head.

This is the truth. Tell every Tory who tells you differently that he is telling a falsehood.

TELEGRAM ATTACKS ARMSTRONGS, DEFENDS REIDS

Last night the Morine-Cashin organ, the "Evening Telegram" comes out openly against the Humber Deal and goes out of its way to attack the firm of Armstrong, Whitworth & Co., sneering at some enterprises of the world-wide known and honourable firm. At the same time that paper defends the Reids and is miffed because in the Humber Industry the Reids are not in control.

The mask is coming off the Tory bluff these days, and this latest twist is in line with the Cashin admonition in the secret pamphlet not "to be bluffed into voting for a visionary scheme like the Humber."

We have now the Cashin-Morine outfit openly against the Humber Industry, and the people can easily see where the paw leader fits in. He is no more considered than the cat under Cashin's feet.

The Humber is no visionary scheme, and if work for 10,000 men, and an expenditure of nearly Twenty million dollars, matters that do not interest the Cashin-Crosbie Tories, then let them go and bury themselves quickly, before the votes on May 3 bring them to political oblivion.

Telegram Says The Fish Regulations O.K.

The Tory Opposition are the laughing stock of the intelligent voter because of their childish attempt to steal the Squires victory of the Humber.

The latest twist of the Cashin-Morine organ, the Evening Telegram, is to come right over and defend the Fish Regulations.

For a paper who has damned Coaker and the Fish Regulations in every form it is refreshing to find in the Telegram, the following: "THE FISH REGULATIONS WERE ALRIGHT, but it was the way they were enforced."

And after the publication yesterday of the actual message received by Hon. W. R. Warren from Mr. George Harris the people can see just how much bluff is behind the Tory Campaign.

Here is the Harris message:

Oporto, March 21.

Warren,

St. John's.

Strongly urge you oppose lifting regulations regarding the sailing of vessels to Portugal. Think it absolutely necessary that all sailings be held up until April for the benefit of all cargoes here and all that are to come.

Dear Prime Minister,

My attention has been drawn to an article which appeared in a New York paper ("The Fourth Estate") of December 9th last, copy of which I enclose, and in which statements are made which I think you will realise at once are quite incorrect.

The article states that the new paper mill project on the Humber River has been opposed by us and that we were afterwards induced to withdraw such opposition. As you were aware, we have never opposed this scheme in any way whatsoever, but on the contrary, we have welcomed it.

In a cable I sent some time back to a gentleman who is closely associated with this scheme, I stated that we gladly welcomed the establishment of another large papermaking enterprise. My people at Grand Falls also received instructions to give any assistance that might be within their power.

As statements of the kind in the article referred to might create an entirely wrong impression in Newfoundland, I desire to place on record this correction, and I shall be greatly obliged if you will be kind enough to make public this letter in any way you think fit.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

R. A. Squires

The Hon. Sir Richard A. Squires, K.C.M.G. &c.,
Prime Minister of Newfoundland,
St. John's,
NEWFOUNDLAND.

Sir R. A. Squires Replies to Lord Rothermere

Prime Minister's Reply.—

Prime Minister's Office,
St. John's, Newfoundland.

February 13, 1923.

Dear Lord Rothermere:—It is not until this evening that your letter of the first of January is before me. Several weeks ago the Bell Island Mines closed suddenly, without notice to the Government. I found it impossible to make any satisfactory arrangements by cable for their reopening, and consequently went to Montreal to negotiate direct with the President of the British Empire Steel Corporation. You will be glad to know that I succeeded in making an arrangement upon the basis of eight thousand four hundred work days per week as an average for the months of February and March and nine thousand work days per week for the months of April and May, provided certainly that miners are available. I got back to St. John's only a few hours ago.

I quite agree with you that the statements contained in the article insofar as they refer to any opposition of the "Harmsworth interests" are entirely incorrect. As a matter of fact, one of the first inquiries which I made when the matter was under consideration more than a year ago was with respect to the attitude of the Anglo Newfoundland Development Co., Ltd., to the enterprise. I was then assured that you were in entire sympathy with the development proposition. You will remember the occasion upon which it was my privilege to attend a dinner given by you in London, and on that occasion you referred to this new enterprise, and welcomed the undertaking in a spirit which I regarded as truly Imperial in that you pointed out that it meant a wonderful development for Newfoundland, and you expressed your satisfaction that advantage could be taken of the Imperial Government guarantee under the Trade Facilities Act to assist in the creation of the undertaking.

I was consequently very much surprised to note the reference in the article in the "Fourth Estate" suggesting that there was any opposition whatever so far as the A.N.D. Company or any person directly or indirectly connected with it was concerned, and I shall certainly carry out the suggestion contained in your letter to make public your refutation of the statement that the Harmsworth interests had offered any opposition whatever to the proposed Humber development, for, as a matter of fact, you made it clear to me that you welcomed it as an enterprise of immense possibilities in the industrial welfare of the Island.

Very truly yours,

The Morine Paper an Insult To North

It is generally said that A. B. Morine is now filling the editorial column of the Evening Telegram. His handiwork is recognized yesterday when the editorial calls Valleyfield's action in refusing to hear Monroe speak, "blackguardism by a few creatures of the baser sort," and "the savage conduct of a few poor guilty tools."

Not only Valleyfield, but all Bonavista Bay, will remember these words on Polling Day. They cannot show their contempt for Morine, but they will for Morine's candidates, and for the Cashin Tory Party, of which Monroe is a leading light. Nothing is said about Greenspond and the few who thought they could work off some spleen on Mr. Coaker, but Valleyfield is singled out, and Coaker is blamed for inciting this place to turn Monroe down. But Coaker had told the people to hear Monroe quietly and treat him kindly, and if places now refuse to hear Monroe it is because of the Greenspond affair, and the unsuccessful attempt of Carter and others to hinder Coaker's triumphant tour.

And the Morine paper, the Telegram, ends up by a wholesale insult to all Bonavista Bay in saying that the people act, since Coaker came to Bonavista Bay, as if dead to shame, and speaks of a devilish spirit which has entered into these misguided people.

This base charge is made against the whole Bay because Coaker and his colleagues simply wiped up the Tory candidates in 1913 and 1919. What do you think of this, men of Bonavista Bay?

We say this to-day, and say it just as confidently as in 1919, that Coaker, Winsor, Abbott are going to get as large majorities on May 3 as in 1919. We say that Monroe will be at the bottom of the Poll. We say further that the so-called Coaker seats are as safe as ever, and further still, that there is no doubt at all that SQUIRES IS COMING BACK.

The Man Who Leads Ferryland Back to Liberal Fold

MR. AMBROSE HEARN
Squires Candidate For Ferryland

The Demonstration was so bad that some of Higgins Healers were disgusted.

Portugal Cove is just as much against Higgins and his drags as Bell Island and Higgins knows it.

Who said his picture would do on Bell Island, ask Higgins.

Northern Districts Repeat 1919 Victory

Reports from the Northern Districts leave no room for doubt that the victory for the Liberal Party in that section will be at least as great, from the standpoint of majorities, as that of 1919. That every Liberal standard bearer north of Baccalieu will be returned with double the votes of the Tory-Merchant candidates, not even the most optimistic supporter of the Opposition doubts, despite the ridiculous fabrications appearing in the Tory papers purporting to be messages from the outposts.

The canvass of Mr. Coaker and his colleagues, Messrs. Winsor and Abbott, in Bonavista Bay was a revelation. It was believed the climax had been reached in 1919 when the Liberal candidates in the northern constituencies broke all records for majorities, but not even in the campaign of that momentous election were such enthusiasm and such whole-souled support in evidence as are marking the progress of the winning trio through that District now. It is extremely doubtful if Monroe will get anything like the vote polled by Morine in 1919, while it is generally conceded that both Winsor and Little will beat Monroe.

From Trinity District comes similar news. At every settlement in Trinity Bay the people are vying with each other, and each settlement is trying to outdo the other in giving the popular Liberal candidates, Messrs. Halfyard, Hibbs and Randell the greatest receptions ever witnessed in any district. Their meetings have been an uninterrupted line of marvellous successes throughout the whole district, and while Mr. Halfyard, after his first term as the senior representative of the loyal old Liberal District of Trinity, is more popular than ever, his colleagues, Messrs. Hibbs and Randell are men after the Trinity electors' own hearts. They are young, virile hustlers whom the district can trust entirely to fight for its interests. The majorities in Trinity District for the Liberal Team will exceed those of 1919.

In Twillingate it would be as well, it seems, to elect Messrs. Barnes, Jones and Brown by acclamation. The Tory trio in that district are even more ineffective than was at first thought possible. They have made a pretense of canvassing the district, but, realizing the utter futility of their efforts, they have long since made up their minds to take things easy. They are now but waiting for nomination to retire quietly from the district where they will be heard of no more.

The same applies to both Fogo and St. Barbe, where Grimes and Scammell were decided winners before they went into the districts at all. In fact Mr. Joe Moore has written to the City that he might as well have stayed home, while Mr. Grimes will give Mr. Joe Long the most decisive defeat ever handed out to an aspiring young politician of the weaker sort.

VICTORY AND THE HUMBER

THE VICTORIOUS NORTH swings into action for RULE BY THE PEOPLE for the HUMBER, MORE WORK AND BETTER WAGES, and for BETTER PRICES FOR FISHERMEN'S PRODUCE.

The Cashin-Morine Merchant Party means low prices for fish and no Humber, and the Fishermen will NOT tolerate a Merchant Party.

Therefore SQUIRES WINS, THE HUMBER WINS, THE PEOPLE WIN.

Trinity Bay, Bonavista Bay, Twillingate, Fogo and St. Barbe have opened fire on Cashin and Morine and their Tory Merchant power seekers; and the slogan is "VICTORY," "VICTORY."

No room for hang'er down tactics, now; THE HUMBER, MORE WORK AND BETTER VALUES will be secured by the PEOPLE on May 3rd.

Merchant Rule led by Cashin and MORINE means low prices.

Therefore it is SQUIRES and the HUMBER and PROGRESS.

The people are voting the STRAIGHT TICKET FOR GOVERNMENT CANDIDATES.

"Isn't I Leader, Mr. Archibald?"

The Advocate has been prepared to take Mr. J. R. Bennett quietly, if not seriously, but after his maiden speech at Bay Roberts, it is a question whether he is not one of the biggest takes of the year. He had one qualification for being Leader, and several other men with the same qualification had been approached by the Tory Party to lead it, but they had refused to become pawns for Cashin and Crosbie. Mr. Bennett alone accepted the invitation, and now is worrying his audiences with a silly attempt to persuade them he is a "leader." He tells Bay Roberts that he is a leader and fully qualified to be one. He says there's going to be a Round Robin signed up by all the Tory Candidates that he is leader! He turns round to Hickman and says: "I'm leader, Isn't I, Mr. Hickman?" And Hickman smiles. He turns round to Archibald and says: "Isn't I leader, Mr. Archibald," and Archibald says, "yes boy." What utter trash for a leader to be getting off. A real leader LEADS, he is not driven. Everybody knows that Cashin is leader, just as he was in 1919. If Cashin killed Lloyd what wouldn't he do to Bennett? The difference is that Bennett will do Cashin's bidding everytime.

Some time to go to the Island Fox. The first time in four years. You must think the people are all fools.

Higgins, Vincombe and Fox, they are all in the same box.

Yourselves got a freeze out on Bell Island, Billie, what could you expect Vincombe and Fox to get.

SQUIRES WILL WIN

Champney's Solid for Halfyard, Hibbs, Randell

(Special to Advocate)
CHAMPNEYS via PORT REXTON, April 19.—Mr. Hibbs and Captain Randell opened the political campaign here last night. The C. E. T. S. hall was filled to its utmost capacity. We deeply regret Hon. Mr. Halfyard could not attend owing to illness. A wonderful reception was accorded the candidates. Mr. Hibbs and Capt. Randell held the attention of the audience for over two hours and dealt satisfactorily with industrial plans of present government. The meeting was the best ever held here. Not a single interruption or question asked. Meeting closed with ringing cheers for the three candidates and the present government. Champneys is solid.

(Special to Advocate)
SHAMBLERS COVE, April 19.—Last night Mr. R. G. Winsor, government candidate, had a meeting here and outlined the industrial policy of the Liberal Party, now seeking re-election, also pointing out to us why the government had an election this spring. His remarks were well taken by all present who paid great attention as the speaker dealt with the different subjects. We feel sure that Shambler's Cove and Port Nelson will vote 90 per cent. for the present government and their industrial policy, for our country.

OBITUARY

REGINALD STEED,
Pound Cove,
March 13, 1923

To The Editor.
Dear Sir,—Will you please allow me a space in your much read paper, the Advocate, concerning a dear friend Reginald Steed, adopted son of Eli and Sarah Hounsell, who passed peacefully away on March the 10th. of that terrible disease, consumption. He was 24 years old, and when he was called he was ready to answer, and he has gone to be with Christ, where there will be no more parting and all tears will be wiped away. He was a member of the Orange Young Briton Society. He was laid to rest in the C. of E. cemetery. He leaves to mourn one aunt and his adopted parents. Now he has rend his title clear To mansions in the skies, He has bid farewell to every fear, And wiped his weeping eyes.
A FRIEND.

Double Drowning at Grate's Cove

Last Thursday morning four men left Winterton to go to Baccalieu Island, in an open motor boat, to take some fish and gear which they stowed there during the winter. Arriving safely at the Island the men put their supplies, etc., on board the boat and started to return to Winterton. The wind, at the time, was coming up and after the boat rounded a point near Grate's Cove a gale sprang up and set a heavy sea running. A big sea swept into the boat and before the men had time to bale it out another, and larger one, came over and the boat went under and turned over. The occupants were thrown in the water and when the boat came to the surface, shortly after sinking, only three clung on. The fourth, Augustus Sansom, had been washed away and drowned. Some time the men on the boat held on in spite of the heavy seas which were then running and the terror buffeting they were receiving. A sea of extra force came over them and one of the survivors, Isaac Sansom, was washed off, and was help carried away when he managed grab the propeller. He was up to get on to the upturned boat, held on to the propeller for some considerable time. In the meantime the occupants of another boat larger than the first one, which had also been at Baccalieu and was coming behind, saw what happened and came with all possible speed to the rescue. Just as the boat got alongside the upturned one, Isaac Sansom lost his grip and was sinking when one of the rescuers caught him by the collar and lifted him into the boat. When he was in the boat it was seen that he was dead. The terrible ordeal he had gone through had proved too great a strain; for two hours amid the icy waters he had clung to the propeller.

The two men who were clinging to the boat were then taken on board and everything possible was done for their comfort with the limited means at hand. The rescuers then put their boat at full speed to Grate's Cove where the survivors were looked after by the residents who gave them dry clothing, food, etc., and kept them for the night. The body of Isaac Sansom was prepared for burial, and although search was made the body of the first man to wash off—Augustus Sansom—was not recovered. Friday afternoon the prepared body was brought to Winterton and on Sunday afternoon the funeral took place. The procession was the largest ever seen there as people from the nearby settlements attended as a token of sympathy for the deceased's relatives.

The unfortunate men were both married, and it is understood Augustus was about 50 years of age, and

MORINE TRIES TO SHIFT THE BLAME

Reid's Were Given Lands in Humber Area By 1898 Contract

The Telegram, whose editorial utterances these days are the utterances of Alfred B. Morine, denied Tuesday that the lands in the Humber area were given to Reids by the 1898 Contract.

Does the Telegram imagine, or does Mr. Morine imagine, that nobody in Newfoundland but the said notorious Morine knows anything about the Railway Contracts?

If the Telegram is ignorant of the terms of the 1898 Contract or of Mr. Morine's knowledge of his own handiwork has grown rusty, we would advise them to look up the 1898 Contract just to refresh their memories, and they will find to the Reids by the Whiteway-Bond Operating Contract of 1893, which Morine opposed, and when Cashin was not in the Assembly. That may be "critically correct." It is only half a truth which is the worst form of lie.

The Telegram does not tell its readers that BY THE CONTRACT OF 1894 IT WAS PROVIDED THAT THE OPERATING CONTRACT OF 1893 SHOULD BE READ IN CONNECTION WITH AND AS IF FULLY SET FORTH IN THAT OF 1898.

Not seeing that Morine made the 1898 Contract and seeing further that Cashin supported it, it must be concluded that Morine and Cashin were parties to giving Reid "5,000 acres of land for each mile of railway," which big shoe of the whole country included the Humber properties. Ergo, the Reids were placed in possession of the Humber properties by Morine and Cashin.

Came again, A. B., that little blurb was too thin anyway!

FOX HARBOUR WANTS BONIA, BINDON AND BROWNE

The Editor, Evening Advocate.

Dear Sir,—Please publish in your highly esteemed paper, a few details which I desire to discuss. We had a visit from Walsh, Sullivan and St. John, some time ago, and in their speeches, Mr. Sullivan told of the great George Harris and what a great man he was to us. If he was so great a man as they describe some of our poor fishermen who starved from the starvation of April until October, plunging into St. Mary's for their living, would like to hear from him. Only for Sir A. A. Squires and the Government, they would certainly starve this winter.

If all the merchants are like him, I guess its time to keep them out of the Government all together and let some great men like Squires and Coaker look after the welfare of the country and for the rights of the fishermen. Come along Bonia, Bindon and Browne.

Tories Admit Scammell Wins

(Special to The Advocate)
SHOAL BROOK, via Bonne Bay, Ap. 18.—Mr. Scammell visited the Western Arm, Bonne Bay and Shoal Brook yesterday and addressed a public meeting in the L. O. A. Hall last night. He was accorded a grand reception, flags flying from scores of poles and powder guns belching forth their welcome all along. At night the hall was packed with men, women and children, and what was agreed by all as the best meeting ever held at Shoal Brook was held. Mr. Scammell gripped his audience and for an hour and three quarters held their attention while he delivered one of the finest and most eloquent addresses ever heard at Bonne Bay, and one that reflects the highest credit on himself and the Party that sent him to us as a candidate for election. The applause and cheers were alike vociferous, and Bonne Bay West is with Mr. Scammell eighty per cent. Even the Tories admit that he is delivering the goods and winning every day. Ex-Service Men's Reunion at Grenfell Hall To-night

Arrangements are now completed for the ex-service men's Smoker and Concert which is being held in the Grenfell Hall, to-night. A pleasing programme has been prepared and many well known local artists have accepted their intention of assisting. Mr. A. E. Holmes, who is so well and favourably known to Theatre goers, will give a recitation known as "Haggis." Many who have heard this recitation have said that it is one of the finest War recitations yet written. Song sheets which include Regimental and Naval favorites will be available and the various choruses should be sung with much gusto. The Allied Consuls are hoping to be present including the recently appointed French Consul M. Ernest Turquet de Beauregard. His Excellency the Governor will deliver an address which will later be followed by an address from Padre Nangle, who will give an outline of the work being done Overseas, etc. Admission will be free and there will be no collection. A cordial invitation is extended to all ex-service men to be present.

All inquiries regarding Job work, Advertising and Subscriptions should be addressed to the Business Manager of the Advocate.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given to the Electors of the Electoral Division aforesaid, that in obedience to His Majesty's Writ to me directed and bearing date, the twelfth day of April 1923, I require the presence of the said electors at the Mechanics' Hall, Water St., in the district of the St. John's Eastern Division, on the 23rd day of the month of April from 10 a.m. until 2 of the clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of nominating persons to represent them in the General Assembly of Newfoundland; and that in case a poll be demanded and allowed in the manner of law prescribed, such poll will be opened on the 3rd day of the month of May, in the year 1923, from the hours of eight in the morning until eight of the clock in the afternoon, in such of the polling districts fixed by the Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor, dated the 7th day of the month of April in the year 1923.

And further, that at the Mechanics' Hall, Water Street, I shall open the ballot boxes, count the votes given for the several candidates and return as elected, the persons having the majority of votes, of which all persons are hereby required to take notice and to govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand at St. John's, the 16th day of April, in the year 1923.

JOHN B. WADLAND,
Returning Officer.

METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY BREAKS RECORDS

The Year 1922 Showed Increasing Prosperity and Improving Business Conditions.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company broke all records in amount of business done in the year 1922, according to a report published today. The amount of new business placed on the books exceeded the phenomenal year of 1920 and was far in excess of what had been done in 1921. The Officers of the Company believe that this certainly reflects improving business conditions.

The Metropolitan's business indicates a prosperous year in Canada. It placed on the books $108,900,000 of new insurance, making the total outstanding in the Dominion $480,562,364. The Metropolitan's total investments in Canada at the end of 1922 were over $94,000,000. The Company has Canadian securities on deposit with the Dominion Government and Canadian trustees amounting to $65,319,697. Of its total investments $81,000,000 are in Canadian bonds, nearly $36,000,000 of this amount being war bonds. The number of policies held by Canadians is over 1,800,000.

Along with this great increase on the business side, the welfare work done by the Company, in behalf of the health of its industrial policyholders, kept pace. Metropolitan nurses made more than two million free visits to sick industrial policyholders, bringing the total number made since this service was inaugurated to over sixteen million. In Canada, co-operation with the Victorian Order of Nurses, 1,766,689 visits have been made; 259,320 in 1922. The Company has distributed altogether two hundred and seventy-two million booklets and pamphlets giving hints on hygiene and prevention of disease. In Canada 2,322,721 were distributed in 1922. These health measures, co-operation with the general public which are widening each year, the part of all official and semi-official health organizations, has resulted in extending the life expectancy among industrial policyholders by eight and one-half years since 1911.

The Proconsul at the Penitentiary

HIS EXCELLENCY'S FIRST APPEARANCE THERE.

He Inspects The Whole Institution.

Flags were flying at the Penitentiary Tuesday in honor of the Governor, Sir William L. Allard. It was the occasion of His Excellency's first official visit to that institution, and the Superintendent and staff availed of the opportunity to give the Proconsul a hearty welcome. At 11 o'clock Sir William, accompanied by his A.D.C., arrived at the prison gate. Here he was received by the Superintendent and Deputy and conducted to the Main Ward, where the prisoners were already "on parade" for His Excellency's inspection. All the officials available were present. As Sir William entered the ward the prisoners "uncovered" while the Orderly—an ex-bugler of the Newfoundland Regiment—played the National Anthem. Having carefully inspected the cells on the different corridors, His Excellency visited the Female Ward and, with the assistance of the Matron, made himself thoroughly acquainted with conditions there. He then inspected the kitchen, pantry, bath-room and Industrial Department, spending some time at the latter while the Trades-Warden explained to him the whole process of broom-making.

A Word of Encouragement To The Officials.

His Excellency shook hands warmly with all the officials, inquired about their circumstances and gave to each of them a word of encouragement. He also spoke personally to eight or ten of the prisoners, listened patiently to the story each had to tell, and promised to give their cases due consideration. Before leaving, Sir Wm. placed on record his satisfaction with the entire management. "The Convicts," of whom there were forty-seven, "had not," he thought, "a bad appearance." The majority looked one straight in the face, and evidently did not belong to the criminal class. The Superintendent had the Penitentiary and the occupants well in hand. Religious Privileges of the Prisoners.

It is pleasing to most intelligent visitors to the Penitentiary to know that ample "religious opportunities" are afforded the inmates, that equal privileges are given to all denominations, and that there are three and sometimes four services held in the prison every Sunday. And here one is reminded that the Salvation Army has recently been barred from the Penitentiary at Kingston, Ontario because of the complaints of the Chaplain about the reading and expounding of the Scriptures. The Army officers who for years were, by courtesy, permitted to hold services in the Prison there on Sunday afternoons, were informed that the Chaplain objected and that in future they must not read the Bible or expound it to the convicts. When informed by the Superintendent, the Army Officers in charge with drew from the Penitentiary and asked the Salvation Army headquarters for Canada to make investigation, and they are now doing so. Adjutant Condo, who has served in various parts of the British Empire, said: "It was explained that there was no objection to the Salvation Army giving musical concerts to the prisoners, but the Old Bible must be left out. The good Old Book—think of it!" It is worthy of remark that the Salvation Army was instrumental in securing the liberty, recently, of Mrs. Angelina Neapolitano, of St. Marie, who some years ago was sentenced to death for killing her husband, who she declared, wanted her to lead a life of shame and keep him in luxury. She refused ed and murdered. Where others failed, the Army succeeded with the Canadian Department of Justice. It is expected that Salvation Army headquarters will protest to the Canadian Department of Justice, and ask that the courtesy formerly extended to the Army be again given. The Army officers claim they are not proselytizing.

A Good Story of a Prison Chaplain. Religious opinion, here as elsewhere, appears to be divided on the question of allowing untrained members of the Salvation Army to expound the Scriptures to inmates of punitive institutions. One of our prominent city clergymen tells us he feels keenly on the matter, and we have advised him to consult the Attorney-General about it, as the latter is the real head of the Department of Justice, and, therefore, the person to deal with all such delicate matters. By the way, a good story was told the other day at a social gathering of clerical and lay gentlemen by a waggish "brother of the black cloth." You see, our ghostly friends sometimes crack their jokes like other people. In this instance it seems that a certain minister had been asked by his congregation to turn in his resignation, selected as his text for his farewell sermon, the following:—"I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also." A stranger, noting the disapproval with which the text was received by members of the congregation turned an inquiring eye on the man sitting beside him. He received back the answer:—"He's going to be the Chaplain at the Penitentiary."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Inspection Regulations

The boilers of every steamer registered in the Colony shall be subject to annual inspection by the Inspector. All persons removing boilers or installing second-hand boilers for any purpose, to work under steam pressure, shall notify the Minister of Marine and Fisheries as to the new locality in which they are intended to work the boilers in; and shall not work such boilers until they have been inspected. Every steamer carrying local crews or passengers to or from this Colony, or to or from any ports therein, shall be subject to annual inspection. All persons installing new boilers for any purpose to work under steam pressure shall notify the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in writing, as to the locality of said boilers. The Inspector shall grant a certificate of inspection for every boiler which shall be approved by him. The certificate shall be displayed in a prominent place in the vicinity of the boiler to which it refers.

Inspection Fees

When a boiler is not in good condition, and the Inspector has granted a certificate for a period less than twelve months, the fee for each extra inspection during the twelve months shall be the extra inspection fee of that class. For any special visit to be made by the Inspector, other than the annual inspection or for any special inspection made at the request of the owner or manager of a boiler, the owner shall pay the expenses incurred by inspection from St. John's to location of boiler and return, subject to approval of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Mode of Inspection

Notice of alterations or additions to any boiler should be given to the Inspector, in writing, for his approval before proceeding with them. Every boiler made after the coming into force of these Regulations shall be stamped with the initial letters of the Inspector's name who inspected it and tested it; also the actual working pressure allowed on it.

GRAND LODGE, L.O.A. IN SESSION AT GRAND FALLS

The fifty second annual session of the R. W. Provincial Grand Lodge of Newfoundland convened for the transaction of business in Interior Orange Hall, Grand Falls, on Wednesday, April 12th.

The Grand Lodge opened in the Royal Scarlet Degree at 9.30 a.m.

R. W. Bro. F. G. Bradley in the chair, owing to the absence of the Grand Master.

R. W. Bro. R. J. Smith acting Deputy Grand Master, with all the other Officers in their places.

There were some 75 Delegates present from Moreton's Harbour in the North to Pouch Cove in the South.

On resolution the following message was forwarded to His Excellency the Governor.

"Grand Lodge of Newfoundland Loyal Orange Association, representing 17,000 Citizens in annual session, welcomes your Excellency to Newfoundland and wishes that your term of office will be successful and beneficial to the Colony. It respectfully requests that you will convey from the Association to His Majesty the King expressions of loyalty and good will to His Majesty's person and the Royal Family, and to the British Institutions in the Mother Country and the Dominions beyond the seas.

The Grand Lodge expressed its pleasure of the fact that the initial stages of the National War Memorial were nearing completion.

The Grand Lodge impressed upon its members and the Primary Lodges throughout the Colony the necessity of giving both their moral and financial support to the Permanent Marine Disaster Fund and the Outport Nursing Committee, also their duty as Orangemen to provide for the Education and welfare of deceased members' children.

On resolution votes of thanks were extended to the A.N.D. Co. and the citizens of Grand Falls for facilitating the progress of the session and the many acts of courtesy extended.

The election of officers was conducted by R. W. Bro. Rev. J. W. Winsor and resulted as follows: Grand Master—F. G. Bradley. Deputy Grand Master—R. J. Smith.

On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Grand Lodge accompanied by the Young Britons and the Ladies' Benevolent Society attended divine service at Holy Trinity Church, which was filled to overflowing. No effort had been spared by the officers in arranging for the service. The Order of Morning Prayer was gone through, the Lessons for the day being the 4th chapter of Joshua and the 6th chapter of St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians, the special psalms being the 82nd and the 122nd, and the Hymns, "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Oh God of Jacob, by whose hand," and "We with gladness men of old." The choir rendered the anthem "Hear my prayer" with Mrs. Campbell as soloist. The Rector, Rev. T. E. Loder delivered an eloquent and inspiring address taking as his text the 32nd verse of the 14th chapter of the Book of Isaiah, "What shall one then, answer the messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it."

The service closed with the Benediction and the National Anthem. On returning to the Hall a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Rector, Organist, Choir and Church officials.

For Squires and the Humber.
S. C. F. in the west end means Squires can fight.
The Telegram and frousome sectarianism.
McDonnell goes to St. George's, but St. George's comes back with Downey.
Bennett says: I'll support the Humber, and then shouts "What is the Humber Deal anyway?"
Bennett and his bunch are a crowd of "has-beens."
Behold those three Paritans:—Stone, Archibald and McDonnell, worthy ambassadors of the Tory cause.
A trio of inconsistencies!
J. R. B. will need the good ship "Corsican" to bring him back after he dies on the political battlefield.
With Maddock for Carbonear, Joe Moore will be no more.
Judas Stone, shifty Archibald and traitor McDonnell are now realizing that the way of the transgressor is hard.
B. B. B.—Bennett badly bruised.
Pleasant, the idol of Harbor Grace—a sure winner.
Watch Judas Stone hang himself politically on polling day.
Cashin failed in 1919; his turn again now.
Cashin and stagnation.
Squires and prosperity.
One thing is sure—the number of votes Cyril J. will get on polling day will be foxey.

Bennett is coming back—broken.

Onward Loyal Liberals to victory!

What use are the Tories to the country anyway? They're only an use.

Twenty-six seats for Squires sure

Linegar will turn sour as vinegar.

Port de Grave will be represented by Winter on the Squires Government side of Parliament for the next four years.

Why wasn't Arthur English chosen as leader of the Tories? Sure Arthur is fit for anything!

Joe Moore, Joe Long, two poor Tory Jones.

John Coward Crosbie dare not face Bonavista.

Who called some Northern fishermen "silly asses and deluded creatures"—Cornwall Morine.

Who said "ignorant cullage"—Cashin, the Tory leader.

No more trips on the "Corsican" for ex-War Lord—Bennett.

Will John Bennett ever be elected Premier of Newfoundland? Not likely.

B.B.B.—Bust Bounty Bennett.

With Cashin stepping out and Bennett stepping in, it's a matter of step out the incapable, step in the impossible.

According to the "News" and the "Pink Sheet" the North is still the stronghold of Coaker.

Is brother Pudd lost in Bay de Verde? He will be eventually.

Halfyard, Hibbs and Randall, the winning team for loyal old Whistole Trinity.

Bulley's hand will render the "dead march" when the Tories are buried on polling day.

In the selection of a name for the Flag-and Party led by Cashin, why is it that the Winsorite bunch was not featured as being in alliance with the Tories?

Is Jesse busted?

A wager to "Zip" in the Telegram—fifty dollars, a Squires Government.

The Tory Cashin-Crosbie-Bennett-Morine Party will be buried under an avalanche of votes.

Llewellyn Club

Rev. G. O. Lightbourn Delivers Interesting Lecture

The last of the Bible conferences of the Llewellyn Club for this season took place last night in the Canon Wood Hall.

The meeting was opened by Rev. G. O. Lightbourn at 8.15 with prayer. He then began his lecture on "Religion in Terms of Power." It is seldom that one has the opportunity of listening to such splendid lectures as those that have been delivered to the Llewellyn Club this season by Mr. Lightbourn, viz., "Value, Personality and Power."

Prof. Woodbury, referring to the revulsion of thought, said "there has been a great change of thought from the world of knowledge to the world of power." Invention, discovery, organization (both of capital and labor) has vastly increased man's material power.

"Some people," said Mr. Lightbourn, "say that Christianity has lost its power in the world, and that the salvation of the world lies ultimately in the power of Labour; but the Church has not lost its power, our Lord Jesus Christ is not a failure. His power is as strong today as ever." The release of slaves, the higher plane on which we have placed women, the work of child welfare, the forward movement of education, can all be traced to the influence of Jesus Christ Himself. Our great hope for power in the future, lies in Jesus Christ. He must be the centre of our aspirations.

The lecture was a masterly, instructive one, and those present would gladly have listened for twice the length of time it took to deliver. The meeting was brought to a close at 8.45 with a blessing.

Lady Allardye Visits Methodist Orphanage

On Wednesday afternoon the Methodist Orphanage was honoured by a visit from Lady Allardye, several ladies of the Board of Guardians being present. During her brief residence in this country Lady Allardye has identified herself closely with all movements for the benefit of children, and has been untiring in their furtherance. It was as the Orphan's friend that she paid the visit and the little girls will not forget the kindness shown by her, and the interest she displayed in them and their welfare. She heard them sing, and some of them sing very nicely, and spoke to them kindly and encouragingly. Lady Allardye expressed herself as much pleased with her visit, and intimated her intention to repeat it at no distant date.

At The S. A. Citadel

Col. Martin Conducts Interesting Missionary Service

A service of a very instructive and inspiring character was held in the S. A. Citadel, Adelaide Street, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, presided over by Colonel Martin, who was assisted by Staff Capt. Tilley, and a number of other officers.

The service took the form of a missionary demonstration and was intended to give information concerning the Army's activities in foreign lands so that those who give to the coming Self Denial effort may have reliable data concerning the purpose for which these funds are required.

Colonel Martin in his opening remarks referred to the fact that the Army is the youngest missionary organization in existence but that in a comparatively few years it has found its way into almost every corner of the globe. He stated that he was the recipient each week of a long letter from International Headquarters, London England, dealing with the work in all parts of the world and he had gathered together a lot of the information thus received and intended having various officers read specially prepared papers dealing with the work in the different countries.

He then called upon Ensign Frampton, who read a very interesting paper dealing with the Dutch Indies where the Army has a splendid work established which is producing excellent results, both from a social and spiritual standpoint. A very interesting feature of the Army's work in this country is its care of the Lepers for whom they have formed a separate colony, and the descriptions given of this were well worth hearing.

Other papers were read by Capt. Mabel Barter, on India, Lieut. King on Korea, and Ensign Cornick on China. Before the paper on China was read the Colonel made a few remarks concerning Capt. Mabel Payne, a Newfoundland officer, who went to China a little over a year ago and who is doing excellent service for God in that far off land. He read a letter recently received from the Captain in which she expressed herself as being in love with her work and thankful to God and the Army for the privilege of working in that very interesting country.

Lieut. Barter supplied some very interesting information regarding the children of missionary officers who are being educated in London while their parents carry on the war in foreign lands. Being parted in this way is naturally a great trial both to parents and children but the sacrifice is cheerfully made for the sake of Christ and humanity. The description of the delight shown by these little ones when Commissioner Mapp, who recently returned from a foreign tour, brought them messages of love from their parents was very touching indeed.

Ensign Bishop's account of the tours of a party of Indian boys and girls in England and on the European Continent was most interesting. The Colonel explained that it was originally intended to have this party visit St. John's en route to Canada, but circumstances compelled them to proceed direct to their own country from England.

Owing to the lateness of the hour several items had to be omitted but the Colonel announced that the programme, with some slight alterations would be repeated in the No. 1 Citadel next Thursday night when a full house is anticipated and an interesting time is assured.

Terra Nova Arrives

HAILS FOR 15,500

The S. S. Terra Nova, Capt. A. Kean, arrived from the icefields at 6 o'clock last evening hailing for 8,000 young harps, and 7,500 old harps, a total of 15,500, and has a heavy trip, and is expected to turn out 400 tons of fat. Capt. Kean reports a very stormy spring, with strong winds, and ice conditions were the worst for years.

The Terra Nova reports old seals numerous, and but for lack of cartridges she would have had a record trip. The Ranger which still has 65 tons of coal on board will remain another week, and should have a big trip. The body of a young man named Noseworthy, one of the crew of the Terra Nova who died early in the spring, was brought back by the ship and was forwarded to Pouch Cove for burial.

The following is the catch reported:

Saguna (landed)	11,882
Caple (landed)	10,761
Seal (landed)	12,233
Neptune (in port)	15,500
Thetis (in port)	16,500
Terra Nova (in port)	15,500
Ranger	11,860
Viking	6,300
Total	100,536

M. C. L. I. Holds Annual Banquet

A BRILLIANT FUNCTION.

Leading Citizens Deliver Splendid and Optimistic Speeches.

In the Methodist College Hall last night the fifty-sixth session of the Methodist College Literary Institute resulted in a very successful termination of the season of 1922-23, when nearly two hundred members and invited guests joined in the Annual Banquet, the menu for which, provided by the Ladies' College Aid, was excellent in quality, daintily served and of such a quality as to suit the most fastidious epicure. The Methodist College Hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, while the service of the Ladies left nothing to be desired. Amongst the invited guests were: His Excellency the Governor, Sir William Allardye, Sir William Lloyd, the French Consul, Mons. Beauregarde, Mayor Cook, Sir Patrick McGrath, Dr. V. P. Burke, Supt. R. C. Schools, Revs. Hammond Johnson and R. E. Fairbairn, Major B. C. Gardiner, Asst. Manager Bank of Montreal, a number of prominent business and professional gentlemen and press representatives. Mr. R. Hearder, President of the Institute, made a very capable chairman. The Prime Minister, Sir R. A. Squires, a past president, sat at Mr. Hearder's left. The boys in residence at the Methodist College Home were also present at the dinner as the guests of the Prime Minister.

The President of the Institute proposed the Health of His Majesty the King, which was duly honoured and the following list was spoken to:

"THE KING"—Prop. the Chairman, resp., "God Save the King."

"THE EMPIRE"—Prop. Hon. Sir R. A. Squires, K.C.M.G.; resp., His Excellency the Governor.

"NEWFOUNDLAND"—Prop. Rev. Hammond Johnson; resp., R. Hon. Sir Wm. Lloyd.

"THE M. C. L. I."—Prop. Sir Patrick T. McGrath, M.B.E.; resp., Mr. R. Hearder.

"EDUCATION AND THE METHODIST COLLEGE"—Prop. Dr. V. P. Burke; resp., Rev. T. B. Darby, M.A.

"THE CLERGY"—Prop. Mr. I. C. Morris; resp., Rev. R. E. Fairbairn.

"OUR GUESTS"—Prop. Mr. H. J. Russell; resp. Mr. B. C. Gardiner.

At the conclusion of the regular toast list, Master Roy Clarke, on behalf of his fellow students, thanked the Prime Minister for the kind thought which prompted him to invite the boys to such an enjoyable function.

Those who attended last night's M. C. L. I. dinner felt one and all it was good to be there. If half the good things said of this old land be true, then big hopes must fill the minds and hearts of those who were privileged to hear the optimistic utterance of the various speakers. The Prime Minister's speech in proposing the toast, "The Empire", was a masterly effort, and the applause which punctuated his remarks was at times deafening. His Excellency in responding to this toast was delightfully reminiscent as he told the story of the influences which induced him as a lad of 17 to leave the Home-land on July 10, 1879, and set out for the Falkland Islands as an attaché of the Governor's staff, Sir William F. Lloyd struck a responsive cord in his reply to the toast, "Newfoundland." His speech took the audience back over a period of 30 years. And he showed how this land of fish and fog rallied from the dark periods of commercial adversity time and again. Today we were on the threshold of great things. England had become industrially great because she had the black coal. We had the white coal, and the timber and mineral wealth which will in the near future bring us into times of plenty and prosperity. The Rev. Hammond Johnson's effort was regarded as a bouquet for Nfld. presented in a most acceptable manner. This reverend gentleman's reputation as a pulpit orator of much eloquence and great power, loses nothing in post prandial effort.

During the evening songs were rendered by Mr. H. Courtney and were warmly applauded. "Rule Britannia" and the "Land of Hope and Glory" were joined in chorus by the whole gathering. Mr. Gordon Christian presided at the piano and his selections added greatly to the evening's success. Messages of congratulation and regret at their inability to attend were received from Mr. J. R. Bennett and Captain A. Kean. Shortly after midnight the function was brought to a close by the hearty singing of the National Anthem.

A landslide for Squires! Stand under ye Tories.

AT THE CITY HALL

The regular meeting of the Council was held yesterday afternoon. Mayor Cook presided and Councillors Martin, Collier, Ryan and Dowden were present.

A petition was tabled from the residents of Cochrane Street and vicinity, pointing out the necessity of having a light placed at the junction of Cochrane and Bond Streets. A similar request was received from Mr. J. J. Coffee, on behalf of the residents of Walsh's Square. Councillor Ryan and City Engineer will visit these localities and report.

James King asked that he be re-appointed during the coming season as instructor at the Swimming Pool, Quidi Vidi Lake. Mr. King, who has given good service during the past eight years, will be engaged when the season opens.

A Samuelson, Southside Road, called attention to the fact that his and other residents were being flooded by water from Reservoir of the Sudbury Leather Coy. The City Engineer was instructed to look into the matter.

W. Noseworthy, Limited wrote re the unsanitary conditions near their Water Street premises. The Sanitary Supervisor was ordered to have his Department give this matter immediate attention.

Application of L. W. Bonnell, for share of work, electrical installations that may be required in connection with the various Departments, was left in the hands of the City Engineer.

The following plans were passed, subject to the approval of the City Engineer:—S. Royall (extension) Circular Road; Mrs. Smith (dwelling) corner Waldegrave and New Gower Streets.

The Mayor tabled a communication received from the Hudson Bay Tourist Syndicate, stating that their schedule had been altered and that he party would reach St. John's about the 3rd of 4th day of August; next, instead of the 15th as previously decided upon.

The Board was of opinion that, with such a large number of visitors to our city, arrangements should be made, whereby the annual Regatta would take place during their stay. It is hoped that the Regatta Committee will give this proposition their favourable consideration, when discussing matters in connection with this popular event.

The attention of the Board was called to the condition of the dump, West End, and the Sanitary Supervisor was instructed to have same cleaned up immediately.

The Health Officer reported twelve new cases of Scarlet Fever and one of Diphtheria in the city for the week.

Tenders were ordered to be called for the supply of lead pipe and pig lead for the use of the Water Works Department.

Reports of the City Engineer, Sanitary Supervisor, etc., were tabled and discussed, accounts for week ordered paid, after which the meeting adjourned.

Large Majority for Foote and Cheeseman

(Special to Advocate)
EPWORTH, April 19.—Cheeseman and Foote held a most enthusiastic meeting at 3 yesterday afternoon in the Epworth school hall and again at 8 o'clock in the Orange Hall at Burin. Both meetings were well attended. Over three hundred voters were present. Cheeseman very clearly defined the regulations and the salt and other problems. Foote in a very broad, sane address of one hour and fifteen minutes held the attention of the audience very closely. Everything points to a large majority for the Squires government, candidates Foote and Cheeseman.—COR.

Death of Rev.

Hayward Martin

On Thursday last word was received from Toronto that a young minister, well known to many in the city, had died at hospital of pneumonia. Mr. Martin was a probationer of the Newfoundland Conference Methodist Church, and in several places was very acceptable and successful in his sacred calling, particularly at St. Anthony, Epworth, Garnish and —. He was designated to Victoria University, Toronto, two years ago, to complete his theological course before ordination, after which it was his ambition to go to the foreign mission field probably China. But our way is not always God's way. Having been unwell with the prevailing epidemic of influenza he went out perhaps in connection with his sacred duties of supplying a pulpit, too soon, and contracted pneumonia, which terminated his life's work at the early age of twenty five. The officials of Wesley Church will take charge of the remains due to arrive by the "S. S. Sable" today and forward the casket to Clarendville by train, when the Rev. W. W. Cotton will take charge, and have them conveyed to his former home, Hickman's Harbor, where his parents in great sorrow now reside, and to whom we tender our sincere sympathy.

Hr. Grace's Message to St. John's

(Special to Advocate)
HR. GRACE, April 20.—Harvey Street Committee Rooms were filled last night with strong Liberal supporters to hear Mr. Simmons report of his canvass of the Bay Roberts section of the district. Strong Liberals went away stronger and surer of a big majority for our standard bearers after listening to Mr. Simmons' review of his march of victory through the western portion of this old historic Liberal stronghold. Bay Roberts, Coley's Point, Shearstown, Country Road, Spaniard's Bay and Tilton were visited and in each place people assured Piccott, Calpin and Simmons a straight party vote to put them well ahead of the Bennett-Cashin-Morine gang who had no policy except one which would mean that a loan would first have to be made eventually costing the fishermen three dollars for every one received as a bounty. Mr. Piccott is expected here today. Let St. John's make no mistake, Hr. Grace depends upon St. John's to stand shoulder to shoulder for Squires, the Humber, and the property of Newfoundland. ROBERT BRAZIL, Secretary of Committee.

SQUIRES WILL WIN

To Dear Sir Michael

(Air: The Girl I Left Behind Me)
The Squires boys will make noise the third of next May in riding. The Tory shouts and dirty scouts our plucky boys are scoring. We'll wind our way on polling day to mark the winning cross. We'll show them plain we're the game to down the Cashin asses. The Humber deal their co. did seal, they're well pigh token hearted. Their day is done, no more they'll come when from the che they're parted. It's of this spring with joy and singing brave Squires snowed them under. They'll surely say something next day we've made them—s blunder. Two C. C. and B. unlucky three, because of Cashin's number, In St. John's West 'twill be the test prosperity's our nut. We'll drown that tricky Tory gang and vote for Squires and Humber. Poor Michael's trick we'll surely lick, he thought his bluff, n easy. The third of May next polling day, I guess he'll feel some free. The die is cast, Mike's down, last. He lost it on the Humber. He lost the game, his bluff's gone lame, good-bye, old Tory number. Poor Mickey's draw ain't worth a straw, you'll find it on his number S. F. and C., the winning three, prosperity and Humber. Those Tories three they did agree we'll fool them with this nuber. Poor oily bluffs to think they could queer the Squires Humber. No more they'll play in our way, Mike Cashin and his party. They're beat to chaff, oh woe a laugh at their expense quite hearty. The merchants' guff, the poor May bluff, if they were feeling good. But not today, we held the sway, we're in a different mood. So goodby Jawn and Anole Jawn, and Michael, C., the bluffer. Take a back seat, don't dare repeat another such a cuffer. No more the chest to line your nest with nice crisp bank notes, C. H. Forget the chest and do your best to earn your grub manfash.—I. M. T.

Only 60 Millions

In the Tory turnout last night there was a banner that must have cost a great deal to get up, bearing the legend "Only $60,000,000 Gone". How desperate must the dear Tories be! "What fools they must think these mortals, the People still be!" Only $60,000,000 gone! and our total public debt is little more than $50,000,000 of which that financial sizzard, Cashin, who is the real leader of the Tories to-day accumulated while he was Minister of Finance, the neat little sum of Thirty Five X. Png.

TORY RECEPTION LAST NIGHT FOR HIGGINS AND COMPANY WAS AN ABSOLUTE WASH-OUT

MUCH ADVERTISED DEMONSTRATION FELL FLAT AND WAS FITTING CLIMAX TO THEIR PROGRESS OF FAILURE THROUGH EASTERN SECTION OF DISTRICT.

The Higgins reception last night was the fifth "frant" the Tory trio received since leaving St. John's some days ago to make a tour of the eastern settlements of the district. They got three "frosts" at Bell Island another at Portugal Cove and the fifth when they tried to enter the city in a blaze of glory last night. As a demonstration the affair was a very successful funeral with Defunct Toryism at the corpse.

There were comparatively few people in the parade outside the young fellows who carried the torches, banners, guns and stage powder, despite the fact that the weather conditions were ideal. If the East End Tories wanted to demonstrate to the city that their cause is a lost one, they could not have done so more effectively. They had advertised the proposed "demonstration" in every shape and form. Their Committee even went down to King's Bridge, erected an open air platform and decorated it with bunting; they spent money galore in powder, fire-crackers, stage powder, and other things, but it was all no go "you can't get a kick out of a dead mule."

'Twas a demonstration all right, 'twas a tremendous demonstration, at that but 'twas a demonstration of utter weakness, of failure, of defeat. It was the poorest thing in the form of a political parade ever held in the city of St. John's. It wasn't worth talking about.

Obituary

MRS. ELIZABETH WRIGHT

(To the Editor.)

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly grant me space to record the death of another old friend, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright. She had reached the age of 83 years and 6 months. She had kept house for one of her grand sons up until a few months ago, when she fell on the ice, which caused her death. Strong and hearty up till the past year, she could do her household work, hook mats and out-do many younger women in those things. Hers was a life of usefulness; of a kindly disposition. Hundreds have gone to her with cuts and sores; her touch seemed to have a healing art. Night or day, rough or smooth, rich or poor, always found her ready and willing to give the helping hand. She was a marvel of endurance. She was a member of the Church of England, always attended to the wants of the Ministers when they came this way. She was laid to rest by the Rev. Mr. Hiscock from Valleyfield.

She leaves not to mourn because she had passed her day and her suffering was great, a large number of relatives and friends who were grateful to the Heavenly Father for relieving her of her sufferings which she bore without a murmur.

BILLY WALSH AT HIS OLD GAME

Elsewhere in this issue we publish a letter from a liberal resident of Riverhead, St. Mary's. He refers to Billy Walsh's tactics as giving scandal and abuse. Walsh is a his old game. His despicable conduct of 1913 and 1919 is so well known to many as not to be again referred to; further than to remark that Placentia and St. Mary's will not permit this scally way to insult the name of Capt. Tom Bona. Walsh is doubtless continuing the propaganda which is being whistled by Cashin's satellites against Captain Bona. This over bearing political demagogue Cashin would destroy if he could every man who represents his obnoxious presence in the public life of this country. Because Capt. Tom has decided to help his native district by restoring it to a place whence the antics of Billy Walsh and Cashin relegated it to in 1919, he must be made the butt of Cashin's jeers and jibes. Bona's record in public and private life is untarnished. He wants Newfoundland to prosper, he seeks to benefit Placentia and St. Mary's by bringing back into the Liberal fold, and we have every reason to believe that he will be eminently successful in his manly and patriotic effort. As the correspondent from Riverhead, St. Mary's, very properly remarks, the people of Placentia think it is time for Walsh to get to work and give up sponging off the taxpayers and hunting for a soft job. To hear the loud mouthings of this man Walsh the public would be led to believe that he possesses an independence second to none in this country. Ask Higgins and Cashin how independent Billy B. really is. Giving scandal and abuse is indeed Walsh's favorite game. With Placentia and St. Mary's longer tolerate him? The country hopes not. The Squires government is already returned. Placentia will join the winning side by electing Capt. Tom Bona, Finance Minister, and his two energetic and capable colleagues, BINDON and BROWN.

Billie had better tell the people what Bell Island told himself and his drags.

NOTE OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Noseworthy, of Pouch Cove, desire to thank H. Bartlett, Esq., Arthur Bulley, Esq., and Jos. Burke, Esq., for their kindness and practical sympathy in having Messrs. Winter Gets Great Reception At Port de Grave

(Special to Advocate)
PORT DE GRAVE, April 20.—Winter arrived here yesterday from Barnece and received the greatest welcome ever accorded a public man in the district. Guns were firing by the score and bunting flying all along from Port de Grave to Hibbs Cove, and arches erected along the way. He addressed an overflowed meeting in the Orange Hall last night amid tremendous enthusiasm, ending with cheers for Liberal Party John B. Mueford, Samuel Taylor Thos. Ralph, Matt Petten and hundred others.

The Battery meeting was a hundred per cent. better than Higgins' splurge.

They Toiled Not!

HOW CASHIN MADE THIS COUNTRY A PARADISE FOR LAND GRABBERS

When Cashin was the custodian of the people's money he was never as busy about the way the public was being fleeced as he is now, that the common people are getting some share in their own earnings.

In Cashin's heyday, the Tories of which he was then one of the leading spirits, this country was made the harvest for land-grabbers. There was a ring who never did anything for a living, but exploited the birthright of the people by getting crown lands for nothing and selling them to foreign companies and individuals at fabulous prices.

In 1914 a question was asked in the House of Assembly as to how much these timber-grant exploiters owed the Treasury on unpaid rentals and the answer tabled showed that the enormous sum was $91,000 was owing on these timber-land leases. That was one sample of the manner in which Cashin, Minister of Finance, protected the people's interests against the sharks who grow rich at the expense of Newfoundland.
